The Art Museum

Mr. Lawn's class went to a new art museum. This was not like any other museum they ever saw. Everything in the museum was made from trash.

In the first hall, the children saw clothes. Phil noticed that some coats were made from old flags. The colors looked pretty. Jane spotted big rain hats made from soda bottles. In the next hall, the children played with toys. Sarah played with a mouse made from boxes. Brooke and Tom raced tin can cars. Kelly played with a ball that was made from rubber bands.

In the last hall, the class saw a tiny town with toothpick houses and red doors. The roads were made from old wood. The stores were made from milk jugs. When the children got back to class, they made art from trash, too. The whole school came to see their fine work.

1. What was different about the art museum in this story?
2. What did the children learn at the museum?
